The Houston Police Department's Robbery Division is seeking the public's assistance in locating a robbery suspect

Two black male suspects armed with hand guns, and wearing hoodys with bandanas over their faces, entered a Gamestop at 5:19 p.m. located near Dairy Ashford and Memorial Dr. The suspects robbed the location, forcing the employees to place the store's money in a bag at gun point, and then attempted to flee on foot out the back door as Houston Police officers arrived. Suspect Ronald Thomas was arrested during a foot pursuit, but suspect Jonathan Galloway was able to flee the scene. Suspect Galloway left his ID at the scene, was identified as the other suspect in this incident, and an arrest warrant for aggravated robbery has been filed against him. Suspect Galloway is currently on probation for aggravated robbery and has been hiding from law enforcement since this incident.
